The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 27, to Saturday May 1, 1756.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 29th Day of April 1756,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHereas His Majeſty was pleaſed by His Royal Proclamations bearing Date the Twentieth Day of October, and the Eighteenth Day of December laſt, to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder to any Parts beyond the Seas, for the reſpective Times therein expreſſed: —And whereas an Act hath been paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, to inforce the Law for impowering His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition, and to impower His Majeſty, by Proclamation or Order in Council, to prohibit the Exporting or attempting to Export Salt Petre out of this Kingdom, as likewiſe to reſtrain the carrying Coaſtwiſe of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Reſtraints, as His Majeſty ſhall think fit:— And His Majeſty judging it neceſſary for the Publick Good, at this critical Conjuncture, to continue the Prohibition on the Exportation of Gunpowder, which now ſubſiſts by Virtue of His Majeſty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Eighteenth of December laſt, for ſome longer Time; and alſo to prohibit the Exporting of Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition out of this Kingdom, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, for the like Time, doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, (except the Maſter General of the Ordnance for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, from the Date of this His Majeſty's Order in Council, preſume to Tranſport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the reſpective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by the aforementioned Act.—And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

[Price Four-Pence.]

Kenſington, May 1.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Sheriff, Juſtices, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Monaghan, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Henry Fox, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Sheriff, Juſtices, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Monaghan, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Sheriff, Juſtices, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Monaghan, being truly ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we have injoyed, ſince the Acceſſion of your moſt Illuſtrious Houſe, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our humble and ſincere Thanks for the Inſtance you have given us of your paternal Care and Concern in providing for our Defence, at a Time when your Dominions are daringly threatened with an Invaſion by the common Enemy of the Peace of Europe.

We ſhall look upon every Attempt which tends to diſturb your Majeſty's propitious Reign with the higheſt Reſentment and Indignation; as our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State are inſeparably connected with your Safety. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Zeal, Chearfulneſs and Reſolution, not only to oppoſe every Inſolent Invader, but, to the utmoſt of our Power, and at the Hazard of every Thing that is valuable to us, on all Occaſions to defend your Sacred Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THOUGH it was not without Indignation that we firſt heard the uncertain Reports of a Purpoſe to invade your Majeſty's Dominions; yet ſince it now appears, by your Majeſty's gracious Meſſage to both Houſes of Parliament, that that ſuch a Deſign is actually formed by the ancient Enemies of theſe Kingdoms, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Biſhop, Lord Lieutenant, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, beg Leave to declare our juſt Abhorrence of the Enterprize, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Defence of your Perſon and Government, and Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, are ſo ſacred to us, that we ſhall, with the warmeſt Zeal, uſe our beſt Endeavours, in our ſeveral Stations, to ſupport your Majeſty, in the moſt effectual Manner, on this inſolent and daring Attempt, and purſue the moſt vigorous Methods in our Power, for the total Diſappointment of all the Enemies to your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity: Neither can we make any Doubt, but that your Majeſty will ſee ſuch a prevailing Spirit, and ſo dutiful a Zeal, among all your faithful Subjects, as will abundantly teſtify their real Senſe of their Bleſſings under your mild and gracious Government, their Affection to your Sacred Perſon, and their inviolable Attachment to the Intereſts of your Royal Family.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, and Borough of Framwelgate, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, and Borough of Framwelgate.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly Senſible of the many Bleſſings derived to theſe Kingdoms from your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, the Continuance of which depends upon preſerving the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Indignation and Reſentment on Account of the inſolent Threatnings of an intended Invaſion by the French.

Your Majeſty's tender and paternal Regard for the Safety and Happineſs of your Subjects, during the Courſe of your Reign, hath, upon every Occaſion, been ſignally manifeſted by the wiſe and prudent Counſels purſued by your Majeſty for thoſe Ends and Purpoſes.

We, with Hearts warmed with a grateful Senſe of your unwearied Attention to the Welfare of your People, acknowledge our unfeigned Thanks to be due to your Majeſty for the Increaſe of your Forces: And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, chearfully endeavour to ſupport and execute all ſuch Meaſures as your Majeſty ſhall take for the neceſſary Defence of the undoubted Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown.

May the Great God long preſerve your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon, give Victory to your Fleets and Armies, Crown your Councils with Succeſs, and grant your Majeſty long to reign over a People, manifeſting their Merit to Freedom and Happineſs by their Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been preſented His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMONG the daily Addreſſes of your loyal Subjects, permit the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of your faithful City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled, to approach your Throne, and teſtify our Duty and Gratitude for your Protection of our Trade and Commerce, and the Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown, with our utmoſt Abhorrence of the projected Revenge of your Enemies.

With the ſtrongeſt Profeſſions of Affection to your Majeſty, give us Leave to aſſure you, that, on all Occaſions, we are ready to exert ourſelves vigorouſly and effectually in Defence of your Sacred Perſon and Government; being certain that, under God, by your Vigilance, Wiſdom, and firm Reſolution, the inſidious Deſigns of your Enemies will be fruſtrated, and our Religion and Liberties be preſerved to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty Firſt Day of April, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in the County of Oxford, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Deteſtation of the ambitious Deſigns of France, in projecting an hoſtile Invaſion upon your Majeſty's Dominions in Europe, in order to ſupport her Encroachments upon the juſt Rights of your Majeſty, and your Subjects, in America.

Your Majeſty's conſtant Application and Diſpatch in providing Means for removing the Encroachments, and reſiſting the Power and Hoſtilities of this ambitious Neighbour, will be a laſting Monument of your Majeſty's great Conduct, Wiſdom, and Reſolution, as well as of that ſtrict Attention to the Preſervation of the Rights of your People, which your Majeſty has always exerciſed through the whole Courſe of your Reign.

We are too ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy from your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, not to be fired with the warmeſt Zeal and Reſentment againſt any Attempt to deſtroy or diſturb our National Happineſs. And we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that upon this, and all other Occaſions, we ſhall be ready to devote our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and for the Continuance of the Crown of theſe Realms in your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber at Oxford, this Twenty Sixth Day of April, 1756, and in the Twenty Ninth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, met at Aberdeen the 14th of April 1756.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, humbly beg Leave, at this critical Juncture, to expreſs the warm Senſe we have of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Concern for the Honour, Liberties, and moſt valuable Rights of Britain, and to avow our Loyalty and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion eſtabliſhed in your Illuſtrious Houſe.

Permit us, Great Sire, to expreſs our juſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the inſidious Meaſures formed by the French Court, and, in particular, of their audacious Deſigns of invading your Majeſty's Dominions; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall always reckon it a Duty incumbent on us, as Miniſters of Religion, to inculcate the Principles of Loyalty, and a ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State; and to exert ourſelves, in our reſpective Stations, to defeat every Artifice that may be uſed for depriving us of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's happy and auſpicious Reign.

That your Majeſty's important Life may be long preſerved: That God Almighty may pour down His Bleſſings upon your Royal Family: That infinite Wiſdom may direct your Counſels: And that your Arms, by Sea and Land, may be crowned with Succeſs; is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen.

Signed in Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, by John Likly, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Richmond in the County of York, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Richmond, in the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Richmond, being juſtly ſenſible of the Obligation incumbent upon all your Majeſty's Subjects to expreſs, on all intereſting Occaſions, their Gratitude for the numberleſs Bleſſings they enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt equitable and truly paternal Government, beg Leave, in this critical Situation of publick Affairs, to tender your Majeſty every Teſtimony in our Power, of our ſincere and unſhaken Fidelity to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and to that invaluable Conſtitution to which we owe the great Felicity we have experienced during the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's Reign, as well as the Hopes and Proſpect of having it continued to our remoteſt Poſterity, by a Succeſſion of Princes of your Majeſty's Royal Houſe.

It is with the utmoſt Deteſtation that we look upon every Attempt of your Majeſty's Enemies to diſturb the Peace and Proſperity of your Kingdoms; and particularly the preſent Deſign of an hoſtile Invaſion from France, provoked by nothing on the Part of your Majeſty, but a ſteady and uniform Attention to the Security and Protection of your Subjects in their Rights and Privileges, and the wiſe and ſalutary Meaſures taken by your Majeſty to diſappoint the Oppreſſions and Encroachments of that ambitious and inſidious Nation.

On this Occaſion, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unanimous Reſolution to exert our utmoſt Endeavours in Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes; and to exhibit every poſſible Proof of our Duty and Affection, which the private and publick Virtues of the beſt of Sovereigns demand from a People made happy by them to their utmoſt Wiſh.

May the ſame gracious Providence of God, which has ſo ſignally watched over theſe Kingdoms for Good, continue to proſper your Majeſty's Arms and Counſels, prolong your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign over us in Health and Peace, and crown your Majeſty's earthly Felicity with the Proſpect of having ſecured, to future Generations, the invaluable Advantages of a righteous Government, under a Race of Princes deſcending from your Royal Houſe, and inheriting the Wiſdom, Juſtice, Moderation, and Goodneſs, of your Majeſty's own Royal Heart.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty third Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Leiceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough rough of Leiceſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Leiceſter, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, to return your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks for the great and wiſe Proviſion you have made to defend all Parts of your Dominions from the Inſults and Encroachments of a Prince, envious of the Liberties and Religion we have for ſo many Years, ſo fully and without Interruption, enjoyed under your happy Government.

When we conſider the many and great Bleſſings of which we are poſſeſſed, and ſet againſt them the Fires, Racks and Exile your Subjects muſt ſuffer, ſhould your Enemies prevail; we cannot but aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Fidelity; and that we ſhall chearfully ſubmit to whatever your Majeſty and your Parliament ſhall think neceſſary to ſtrengthen your Hands, that you may long reign over a free and obedient People: That all your Subjects may, with one Heart, and one Voice, declare they will not be Slaves, and act up with Vigour to that Declaration.

That your Enemies may feel the Weight of a Free Proteſtant People fighting for their Liberties and Religion; and that your Majeſty may long reign over us, and tranſmit to your lateſt Poſterity the Government of a Free Proteſtant People, is our daily and hearty Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty Firſt Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Corporation of Tiverton, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes and Aſſiſtants of the Corporation of Tiverton, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to expreſs our deepeſt Senſe of the great and innumerable Benefits we have and do receive under your wiſe and equal Government, the Indignation we feel at the threatned Attacks of an Imperious Neighbour, and the entire Satisfaction we have in that provident and generous Care your Majeſty has been pleaſed to take for our Protection.

If your Majeſty's Preparations, and the Voice and Spirit of the People, do not deter the Enemy from proſecuting ſo bold an Undertaking; we moſt humbly preſume to aſſure your Majeſty, that we, for our Part, and do not doubt but the reſt of your Subjects, are firmly reſolved to defend your Majeſty, and our Country, at every Hazard; and ſhall think nothing too much to ſacrifice to thoſe invaluable Bleſſings of Liberty, and Trade, its natural Effects, and beſt Security, and to your Sacred Perſon, and Royal Family, on whom they muſt finally depend.

Given under our Seal, the 17th of April, 1756.

The following Addreſs of the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bridport, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bridport, being moſt ſenſibly affected with the ambitious and unjuſt Deſigns of the Court of France, humbly beg Leave, at this critical and important Conjuncture, to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt ſincere Affection and Fidelity to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the Proteſtant Religion, and to the Succeſſion in your Royal Family, for whoſe Preſervation and Support we ſhall gratefully and readily hazard our Lives and Fortunes: And may the King of Kings protect your Sacred Perſon, proſper your Arms, prolong your Reign, and continue the Bleſſings of it in your Royal Deſcendants to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn in Norfolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn in Norfolk, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, humbly beg Leave to join with the reſt of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, in expreſſing our Abhorrence of that Deſign, which the French Court has been meditating and forming to invade Great Britain and Ireland in an hoſtile Manner; a Deſign moſt inſolent and unjuſt, founded in Revenge for your Majeſty's ſeaſonable and effectual Defence of the indiſputable Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown, and for your gracious Care and Protection of the commercial Intereſt of your Subjects at Home and Abroad.

Senſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings theſe Kingdoms enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and touched with a juſt Reſentment at ſuch faithleſs Proceedings of our inveterable Enemies, we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that no Body of Men are more firmly attached, or inſpired with greater Loyalty to your Sacred Perſon, than this your Majeſty's ancient Corporation; and that we will exert, and uſe all our Power and Influence, and hazard our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty againſt that perfidious Court, whoſe wicked Attempts have been hitherto fruſtrated, and will, we truſt, by your Majeſty's Wiſdom, with the Providence of the Divine Goodneſs, be ever defeated.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-firſt Day of April, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty Six.

ON Thurſday June 5, 1755, His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer on Dr. William Lowther, the Honour of his Royal Letters Patent, for his great Invention of the Anti-Epileptick Nervous Powders: Famous for the many ſurprizing Cures they have performed in all Sorts of Fits, Nervous and Paralitick Complaints, being the beſt adapted Medicine ever yet invented (an almoſt an infallible Specific) for the above Diſorders. A few Doſes, taken the New of every Moon, are a ſure Preſervative againſt Apoplexies, and thoſe Perſons who have experienced one Fit, by following the above Rule, will certainly prevent their ever having any other. They are pleaſant to the Taſte, may be taken at all Seaſons, and are far beyond any Salts or Mineral Water whatever, in ſweetening and purifying the Blood, and what greatly adds to the Preference, they generally operate inſenſibly.

Theſe Powders are ſold only at Brooke's Warehouſe, facing Water-Lane, Fleet-ſtreet, where Dr. Lowther attends Tueſdays, Thurſdays and Saturdays, from Ten o'Clock to One, to give his Advice Gratis, in all Caſes of Fits, Nervous Complaints, and Diſorders incident to the Fair Sex.

March 25, 1756.
